STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the three quadrennia since, and for 1954 and 1955. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

JUDICIAL COUNCIL
of
THE METHODIST CHURCH

Decision No. 112

In Re: Ruling by Bishop Watkins on Whether an Approved Supply Pastor Can Be Elected by His Charge As a Lay Member of the Annual Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Approved Supply Pastor represents his Charge as a pastor in every respect except the right to vote. Therefore he cannot represent the Charge in the dual capacity of Pastor and Lay Member at the same time.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 12, 1954, at the session of the Memphis Annual Conference, Wm. M. O'Donnell presented a request for a ruling by the Presiding Bishop Wm. T. Watkins as follows:

> "You are respectfully requested to rule whether a Charge served as pastor by an Approved Supply, may elect that Approved Supply Pastor as the Lay Member of the Annual Conference for that Charge."

On June 13, 1954, Bishop Watkins presented to the Conference his ruling on the question proposed as follows:

> "The Constitution of the Church specifies that each Pastoral Charge shall have a Lay representative in the Annual Conference (Par. 21). The General Conference has enacted that a Supply Pastor may speak upon the Conference floor, but without vote (Par. 317).
> "To elect a Supply Pastor as a Lay Delegate from the Pastoral Charge meets neither of these requirements. Many Supply Pastors are Elders and exercise all functions of the Ministry and all Supply Pastors in charge of churches function as ministers and not as laymen and to elect one of them as a delegate to the Annual Conference is to deny the Charge involved lay representation as required by the Constitution of the Church, and it is to grant to the Supply Pastor involved a vote in the Annual Conference which is prohibited by act of the General Conference. Therefore a charge may not elect a Supply Pastor as its representative in the Annual Conference."

Jurisdiction

Division four, Article II (Par. 43 of the 1952 Discipline) reads in part as follows:

> "Art. II. The Judicial Council shall have authority . . . 3. To pass upon decisions of law made by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

The official transcript of the daily proceedings of the Memphis Annual Conference held at Jackson, Tenn., in June, 1954, shows clearly that the above request for a ruling and Bishop Watkins' ruling were submitted to the Conference in writing in regular sessions of the Conference. Accordingly, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to review and pass upon said ruling by Bishop Watkins by the authority of the Constitution and Paragraph 909 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

Par. 21, Art. 1 of the Constitution (Discipline 1952) states:

> "The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. . . ."

The question involved in this case is, in which category, if either, does an Approved Supply Pastor belong? Clearly he is not a traveling preacher in full connection with the Conference. Can he then be regarded as a layman and as such eligible for election as a lay member of the Annual Conference?

There is little question that from the beginning of The Methodist Church the term local preacher has meant a layman who has been granted the privilege of preaching the Word and who is responsible to the District and Quarterly Conference for his license to preach. However, as time went on and the need for preachers increased with the expansion and growth of the Church a new relationship arose in the local ministry of the Church known as the Approved Supply relationship which is granted to certain qualified local preachers by vote of the Annual Conference, making them eligible to be appointed as pastors of Charges and to assume most of the duties, responsibilities and privileges of a traveling preacher in full connection in the Annual Conference except the right to vote. The Approved Supply is responsible to the Annual Conference which alone has jurisdiction over his authority to preach. The whole history of Methodist Legislation leads to the conclusion that a local preacher who has been made an Approved Supply and appointed Pastor of a Charge cannot be regarded as a layman. Even though he holds his membership and Quarterly Conference relations with the church he serves, he is not a layman but a pastor in charge and is amenable to the Annual Conference as no layman is or can be. (Par. 307, 1952 Discipline.) He receives his salary from the local church, not as a layman but as pastor. He submits a report to the Annual Conference, not as a layman but as a pastor. He represents his charge in the Annual Conference, speaks on the floor of the Conference and is required to attend the sessions not as a layman but as a pastor. If charges are brought against him for offenses enumerated in paragraph 921 of the Discipline he is brought to trial, not as a layman, but as any other preacher in like standing. When he retires he is eligible for a pension through the Board of Conference Claimants because he served the church as a pastor.

There is much merit in Bishop Watkins' Statement that to elect an Approved Supply Pastor as a Lay Member in the Annual Conference is to deny the charge involved lay representation as required by the Constitution. But it is equally true that it would deny the Charge involved of pastoral representation which the Approved Supply Pastor does in every respect except the right to vote. For an Approved Supply Pastor to represent his Charge in the Conference in the dual capacity of pastor and lay member would violate the Constitutional requirement concerning lay representation and defeat the purpose of Methodist legislation concerning Local Preachers serving as Approved Supply Pastors. Furthermore the question of full and adequate lay representation in the Annual and General Conferences was a pronounced issue in the original Methodist Church in America as early as 1820. The denial of such representation by the 1828 General Conference gave rise to the organization of the Methodist Protestant Church. Under the Plan of Union finally adopted in 1938 and put into operation by the Uniting Conference in 1939 the Methodist Protestant Church was united with the other two branches of historical Methodism in America to form The Methodist Church.

This Plan of Union, overwhelmingly accepted by the Methodist Protestant Church, is now the Constitution of the United Church. Par. 21 of this Constitution specifically provides that the Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge.

In the opinion of the Judicial Council this provision must be interpreted in the light of the history of unification and the basic change in lay representation provided in the Plan of Union, and not in the light of former interpretations made by the Methodist Episcopal Church, or the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. When so considered it is conclusive that a person serving as Pastor of a charge and being amenable to the Annual Conference in all respects as a traveling preacher (even though he cannot vote in the Annual Conference), is not such a "lay member" as is contemplated by Par. 21 of the Constitution.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that a Charge served by an Approved Supply Pastor may not elect said Approved Supply Pastor as the Lay Member of the Annual Conference for that Charge. Accordingly the ruling of Bishop Watkins is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 113

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Dana Dawson As to What Constitutes a Pastoral Charge in the Election of Lay Members of An Annual Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

A pastoral charge consists of all the churches of a circuit and they are entitled to elect only one lay member to an annual conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Bishop Dana Dawson as President of Central Kansas Conference was asked for a ruling on the number of lay members of an annual conference and as a basis therefor to decide what constitutes "a pastoral charge" which may elect a lay member and a reserve. In other words, is a circuit charge entitled to one lay member, or one for each church on the charge? Bishop Dawson ruled that only one lay member may be elected from each charge or circuit.

The Judicial Council is requested to pass upon this decision of law made by this Bishop at an annual conference.

Jurisdiction

Section 3 of Article II of Division Four of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 43 (3) of 1952 Discipline) reads in part as follows:

> "Art. II—The Judicial Council shall have authority: . . .
> "3. To pass upon decisions of law made by bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

The records submitted clearly show that such a ruling was made by Bishop Dawson in a session of the Central Kansas Annual Conference with respect to the matter here under consideration. Accordingly, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to review and pass upon said ruling made by Bishop Dawson in said Conference.

Decision

Article I, of Section VII of Division Two of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 21 of 1952 Discipline) reads in part as follows:

> "Article I—The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. . . ."

Paragraph 104 of 1952 Discipline defines a pastoral charge as follows:

> "104. A pastoral charge shall consist of one or more churches which are organized under, and subject to, the Discipline of The Methodist Church with a single pastoral-charge Quarterly Conference, and to > which a minister is or may be duly appointed or appointable as preacher in charge. A pastoral charge of two or more churches is a circuit."

This language is so clear indicating that Bishop Dawson's ruling is correct that we need not refer to other sections of the Discipline which support it. Bishop Dawson's ruling is therefore affirmed.

Decision No. 114

In Re: Requiring the Consent of a Ministerial Member of an Annual Conference Before He Can Be Transferred to Another Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

That part of Paragraph 431, Section 7, of the 1952 Discipline which requires the consent of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference before he can be transferred to another Annual Conference is constitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a meeting of the Council of Bishops on November 19, 1954, it was voted to request a Declaratory Decision from the Judicial Council as to the constitutionality of the provision in Paragraph 431, Section 7, of the 1952 Discipline which requires the consent of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference before he can be transferred to another Conference.

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 904, Section 1, of the 1952 Discipline gives the Judicial Council authority to "determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops." Therefore, the request of the Council of Bishops is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The Constitution makes provision in Paragraph 34, Article I, that "there shall be an episcopacy in The Methodist Church of like plan, powers, privileges and duties" as existed at the time of union in the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The question, therefore, resolves itself into one of whether a bishop had authority to move a ministerial member of one Annual Conference to another without his consent at the time of union in 1939. There was no permissive legislation authorizing such a transfer from one Conference to another, nor was there restrictive legislation preventing such transfer. The general practice, however, was to secure the consent of the ministerial member of an Annual Conference before the presiding bishop arranged the transfer of the minister; and if a transfer was made occasionally without permissive legislation, it does not constitute such a general practice as to have provided bishops any established "plan, powers, privileges" in the two Episcopal Methodisms. Legislation in Paragraph 431, Section 7, provided clarification of this question and does not remove from the bishops any authorized "plan, powers, privileges and duties" in the question of a transfer of a minister from one Annual Conference to another without his consent.

Applicable to this question is the status of the minister in The Methodist Church. Prior to union in 1939 the minister joined an Annual Conference. Methodist Church procedures have long been designed to the end that a minister should and shall belong to an Annual Conference of his own choosing, subject to Disciplinary arrangements for admission, for continuing his membership, and for possible transfer from one to another. For this transfer to be effective, the consent of the appointive powers has been and is necessary, and it seems entirely proper that the general practice on the part of bishops to secure the minister's consent for such transfer should be written into the Discipline.

The presiding bishop's authority is clear as to appointment within the Annual Conference where a minister's membership is held. There has been question, however, about the legality of transfer from one Annual Conference to another without the transferee's consent, and it is at this point that the General Conference has acted.

Of equal force with Paragraph 34, Article I, and bearing directly on this question are other provisions in the Constitution, namely Article IV, Paragraph 8, which reads "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional," and Section 5 of the same Paragraph which specifically grants to the General Conference the power "To define and fix the powers, duties and privileges of the episcopacy." This is definite authority for the General Conference to enact the provision in Paragraph 431, Section 7, which requires the consent of a ministerial member of an Annual Conference before the bishop can transfer him to another.

It is recognized that there may be administrative advantages, and even advantages to the minister involved, of transferring him from one annual conference to another within the Episcopal Area where the Conference at any given time is located. However, there has not been in Episcopal Methodism any expressed legal permission to transfer a minister without his consent to another Conference within the Episcopal Area of the Conference's current location, nor beyond it. If bishops had the right in 1939 to transfer a minister without his consent, such right would have permitted the Bishop to transfer the minister of any Conference not only within his Area but also beyond it and even into another Jurisdiction, limited only by the consent of the receiving bishop. There was no permissive authority at that time nor has there been such expressed authority subsequent thereto. The minister is a member of the Annual Conference where he holds his membership and has the right to retain his membership there unless he is agreeable for his presiding bishop to arrange a transfer for him.

Paragraph 431, Section 4, gives the bishops authority "to fix the appointments of the preachers in the Annual Conferences . . . as the Discipline may direct." In case of transfer from one Annual Conference to another, the Discipline directs in Section 7 of the same paragraph that the bishops secure the minister's consent.

Decision

The Judicial Council, therefore, holds that the provision in Paragraph 431, Section 7, providing for consent by a minister before he can be transferred from an Annual Conference where he holds membership to another is constitutional.

Decision No. 115

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Clare Purcell Relative to the Real and Legal Date of the Close of the Conference Year, Given at the Session of the North Alabama Conference, September 8-12, 1954.

DIGEST OF DECISION

While an Annual Conference has the right to fix the dates of the fiscal year on which it operates, from the legal point of view the conference year begins with the adjournment of an Annual Conference session and ends with the adjournment of the next regular session of the Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The North Alabama Conference, meeting at Birmingham Southern College, September 8-12, 1954, adopted on the recommendation of its commission on World Service and Finance "a twelve months' conference year beginning October 1, 1954, and ending September 30, 1955."

G. M. Davenport then read the following request for a ruling by the Bishop:

> "A motion was passed at the 1954 session of the North Alabama Conference setting the date of the beginning of 1954-55 session (year) of the Alabama Conference as October 1, 1954, and ending the same conference year September 30, 1955. Whereas the adjournment of the North Alabama Conference will (not) be later than September 13, 1955, leaving a period of 17 days between the adjournment of the Annual Conference and the date of September 30, 1955, which the Conference set as the close of the conference year. Ruling is asked of Bishop Clare Purcell as to the real and legal date of the close of the conference year. Is the close of the conference year September 30 or on the date of the actual adjournment of the Conference."

The decision of the bishop was as follows:

> "Throughout Methodist history the conference year has begun immediately following the reading of the appointments for the coming year and has ended at the adjournment of the next session of the Annual Conference. (Waugh as recorded on page 48 of 'Manual of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South,' 19th edition, originally prepared by Holland N. McTyeire, revised and enlarged by Collins Denny, 1931.) It is obvious, therefore, that the conference year begins and ends as above stated.
> "Although the word 'fiscal' does not appear in the report of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance which was adopted, it is clear that the intent of this report was to fix a convenient date for the opening and closing of the business of the conference agencies. Ample precedent for such an arrangement is found in the fact that June 1st through the following May 31st is universally used as the business year of all general conference agencies, although the General Conference itself meets in April and May every fourth year. It is, therefore, the opinion of the undersigned that the conference year is from the reading of the appointments to the closing of the next session of the conference, and that it is not illegal for a conference to fix October 1st through the following September 30th as a convenient date to begin and end the business of its boards and other agencies."
> CLARE PURCELL

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Purcell is properly before the Judicial Council under paragraphs 43 (3) and 909 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

The first part of the Bishop's decision in answer to the question concerning the "real and legal date of the close of the conference year" is that "the conference year is from the reading of the appointments to the closing of the next session of the conference."

There seems to be an ambiguity here because the conference year is said to begin at one place in an Annual Conference session and end in another place in the following session. The ambiguity is slight because it has been Methodist custom to have the reading of the appointments just prior to the adjournment of the conference session. From the legal point of view, however, it would be more accurate to say that the legal conference year is from the adjournment of an Annual Conference session to the adjournment of the next regular session of the Conference . . . that, therefore, the real and legal date for the closing of the conference year is the date of the adjournment of the conference session. Evidently this is what Bishop Purcell intended to hold.

This means, of course, that the authority of all conference actions, unless modified by a special session of the conference, continues until the adjournment of the next regular conference session.

It seems, however, from the wording of the request for the Bishop's ruling, that the problem the request had in mind was the confusion resulting from various interpretations of the term "conference year" for instance, whether, in the case of changes in appointments at the conference session, the ministers involved should have their salaries paid in terms of the legal conference year or in terms of the fiscal conference year adopted by the conference.

As the Bishop indicates in his ruling, an Annual Conference certainly has the right to determine the dates of the fiscal year on which it operates. Paragraphs 22 and 631 of the 1952 Discipline grant an Annual Conference the right to make rules to govern its own procedure in any manner not contradictory to the constitution or to the powers granted to it by the General Conference.

The Bishop fixes the dates of the Annual Conference session (Par. 626). While all concerned try to make the relation between the dates of the conference session and the fiscal year as convenient as possible it is seldom possible in any conference to have the legal and fiscal years coincide.

The request for the Bishop's ruling notes that there are 17 days between the end of the conference session and the end of the fiscal year, fixed by the conference. Judging by the argument, the implied question is, "Who shall be paid for that 17 days in case of a change in appointment, the minister who is leaving the charge, or the newly appointed minister?" The same problem would arise whether the adjournment of the conference session came before or after the closing of the fiscal conference year. Some churches and ministers have apparently assumed that the minister who is leaving a charge should be paid on the basis of the fiscal conference year; others have assumed that he should be paid on the basis of the legal conference year.

The appointment of a minister in The Methodist Church is an episcopal appointment. The charge to which he is appointed is responsible for his support while he is the appointed minister. Normally, when appointments are made in an Annual Conference session, the period of a charge's responsibility for the support of a particular minister will coincide with the legal conference year.

It is difficult to see why there needs to be confusion here. A local Methodist charge pays its ministerial support and its conference apportionments on the basis of the fiscal conference year. This does not mean necessarily that in any fiscal year the total ministerial support is paid to one particular minister. When the appointments are made in the month before or after the end of the fiscal conference year surely the conference can fix its procedure here, too, by determining, in charges where there are appointment changes, what percentage of the month's salary involved shall be paid to the minister who leaves the charge and what percentage to the newly appointed minister.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the legal conference year begins with adjournment of a regular session of an Annual Conference and ends with the adjournment of the next regular session of the Conference, and that an Annual Conference, in governing its own procedure, may determine the fiscal year on the basis on which it operates. The ruling of Bishop Clare Purcell, with the minor correction noted, is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 116

In Re: Appeal of Reverend L. Blake Craft in the Case of North Georgia Annual Conference vs. the Reverend L. Blake Craft.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction only on questions of law. The charges against Appellant, though meager, are sufficient to inform him of the offense with which he is charged. The charges having been made during the session of the Annual Conference the accused was triable under paragraphs 936 and 937 of the 1952 Discipline, and not under paragraph 935 of the 1952 Discipline. Five days were given the accused to prepare for trial. As a matter of law that cannot be held to be insufficient time. Par. 1006 of the Discipline establishes a policy that the Counsel for the accused must be a traveling preacher. By inference the assistant counsel provided in Par. 1007 must be a traveling preacher. The trial having been conducted substantially in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline, the judgments of the Trial Court and of the Court of Appeals are in all things affirmed.

BASIS OF THE APPEAL
STATEMENT RELATING TO THE ISSUES OF LAW INVOLVED

At the 1954 session of the North Georgia Annual Conference complaints regarding the conduct of Reverend L. Blake Craft, an Elder in the North Georgia Annual Conference of The Methodist Church having been called to the attention of the Conference Committee on Investigation, the Committee met during that session of the Conference. On June 23, 1954, the Committee on Investigation made the following report to the Annual Conference:

> "In reporting the case of the Reverend L. Blake Craft, an Elder in the North Georgia Conference, for trial, we present the following bill of charges and specifications; we deem that the accused is liable for trial according to the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, paragraph 921—
> (a) Unchristian tempers, words or actions.
> (b) Disobedience to the order and discipline of the Church.
> (c) Imprudent or unministerial conduct.
> "Specifications: (1) The Reverend L. Blake Craft publishes a paper 'One Methodist Voice.' (2) It is not a parish paper, nor a paper to aid ministers in the conduct of their work. It injures the effectiveness of the work of his own ministry, hampers the work of fellow ministers and damages the good name of The Methodist Church. (3) The paper is not distributed to subscribers only, but is sent out by subsidy as propaganda to both ministers and laymen. (4) There is evidence to the effect that the accused has violated the vows of his ordination."

The accused claims as a matter of law this report did not and does not constitute a charge against him on which he could be legally put to trial; that at most it only constituted an announcement that he "was liable to trial" but did not constitute a CHARGE on which he could be put to trial. The Conference then proceeded as provided in paragraphs 936-937 of the Discipline, to put the accused to trial, and a session for organizing the trial Court was ordered for that afternoon; and a motion was made and carried that the trial be completed at that session of the Conference unless the Court brings some reason why it should not be done.

At the convening of the trial court that afternoon the accused asked for sufficient time to prepare for trial and stated that his counsel, a member of another Conference, could not be present until the following week because he had just moved to his new appointment. A jury was selected, but the actual trial was postponed for five days, the record with reference to such postponement, as set forth in the Conference minutes, reading as follows:

> "By Agreement between the accused, the Counsel for the Church, and the presider and with the unanimous expressed concurrence of the members of the Trial Court, the time of trial was set for Tuesday, June 29, 1954, at ten o'clock in the morning."

At this first meeting of the Trial Court the accused repeated the statement he had made in the Annual Conference, that he would act as his own counsel until his Counsel could be present, and asked permission for a layman to act as assistant counsel, citing paragraph 1007 of the Discipline as authority therefor. The Trial Judge refused the request for a layman to act as assistant Counsel. The accused then did act as his own counsel in interrogating the prospective jurors and exercised the challenges authorized by law.

The accused claims that as a matter of law his having to participate in the selection of the jury without aid of counsel was reversible error; that the refusal by the trial Judge to allow a layman to act as assistant counsel was an error of law entitling him to a new trial. The accused also contends that he was entitled to the ten days' notice required under paragraph 1935, and that the putting him to trial was an error of law entitling him to a reversal of the final judgment imposed on him at the conclusion of the trial. The trial was resumed on the date agreed upon, and on July 8, 1954, the Jury brought in the following verdict:

> "VERDICT
> "Under the charges set forth by the Committee on Investigations of the North Georgia Conference, under paragraph 921, sections (a), (b) and (c), Discipline 1952, we find the defendant, Rev. L. Blake Craft, guilty of the following charges:
> "1. Section (a), paragraph 921, 'unchristian tempers, words or actions.'
> "2. Section (c), paragraph 921, 'imprudent and unministerial conduct.'
> "We specify his use of 'One Methodist Voice' as a means to personally attack his brother ministers, to discredit the leadership of his Conference, and to confuse the laymen of the Church, creating doubt in ther minds by the dissemination of inflammatory writings.
> "We point out that the guilt is substantiated by various and sundry evidence given during the trial.

> "PENALTY: We specify the penalty to be suspension from the exercise of the functions of his office, effective from this date to continue until the opening date of the Annual Conference of the North Georgia Conference in the year 1955."

The Accused attacks the validity of this, as will be shown later. The case was timely appealed to the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, and is now before the Judicial Council on an appeal based on alleged errors of law, as set forth in Appellant's Brief filed herein:

> "AN APPEAL FROM THE FINDINGS OF THE TRIAL COURT AND FROM THE DECISION OF THE APPELLATE COURT IN THE CASE OF THE NORTH GEORGIA CONFERENCE VERSUS THE REVEREND BLAKE CRAFT
> "APPEAL
> "We respectfully petition the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to decide the following questions of law:
> "1. THE CHARGES.
> "(1) Do the bill of charges and specifications comply with the law of the Church?
> "(2) Did the President of the trial court err in failing to sustain the motion of the accused for dismissal on the grounds that the bill of charges and specifications were faulty and fatally defective in that they did not comply with the law of the Church as outlined and prescribed in paragraphs 1002 and 1005, 1952 Discipline?
> "2. THE VERDICT.
> "Did the jury of the trial court in its reported verdict commit an error by not complying with the law of the Church in paragraph 1002, in failing to show what its findings were upon the four (4) specifications in the bill of charges on which the accused was brought to trial; and substituting therefor its own created three (3) specifications which have no basis in the original specifications, and, thus finding the accused guilty of them?
> "3. Did the Presiding Officer of the Trial Court err in the following?
> "(1) He gave instructions to the trial jury, and sent it out to enter into deliberations for the express purpose of finding and rendering a verdict, in the absence of the accused and his counsel.
> "(2) He gave instructions and directions to a committee of the trial jury, and in the absence of the other eleven jurors before the verdict was announced, and this without the knowledge of, and in the absence of the accused and his counsel.
> "(3) He instructed the jury to follow its own interpretations of the law in the Discipline in arriving at a verdict.
> "4. Did the Presiding Officer of the Trial Court err by forcing the accused both to trial without due notices and 'sufficient time' to prepare for the trial, and selecting the jury without the presence and benefit of the accused' Counsel against his protest and citation of laws which such action violated?
> "5. Did the Appellate Court err by refusing the appellant's request and attempt to present the second section of the Brief on the 'EVIDENCE DOES NOT SUPPORT THE CHARGES' which outlined the illegal and irregular procedure of the trial court which permitted the admisson of improper remarks, illegal accusations, speeches by the witnesses, conclusions and sarcastic comments by the Counsel for the Church and some Church witnesses and numerous pleas made to the jury by the Counsel for the Church while witnesses were on the stand?
> "6. Did the Presiding Officer of the trial court err by ruling against the appellant's request to use a Methodist layman as his assistant counsel?

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council, under Par. 1045 of the 1952 Discipline, has jurisdiction to hear and determine this appeal. (See Par. 1033.)

Analysis and Findings
The Judicial Council

The issues in this appeal were ably presented by the Reverend L. Blake Craft, appellant, and by his Counsel Dr. J. Ed Fain; and an ably reply thereto was presented by Dr. Waights G. Henry, Jr., and his assistant Dr. Harvey C. Holland, Counsel for the North Georgia Annual Conference.

1. THE CHARGES.

(1) While the CHARGES are meager, the report containing the specifications refers to them as "the following bill of charges and specifications." In the opinion of the Judicial Council the bill of charges and specifications were sufficient to put appellant on notice of what he was being accused and constituted a substantial compliance of the law of the Church relating to charges and specifications.

(2) Therefore, the President of the trial court did not err in failing to sustain the appellant's motion for dismissal of the charges and specifications.

2. THE VERDICT.

(1) The verdict returned found the accused guilty on two of the specifications in the charges. The jury did not specify new charges, but it specifically repeated in the verdict two of the original specifications on which it had found the accused guilty. By inference the accused was acquitted on the other specifications.

In the appellant's brief he challenges the verdict on the ground that it did not show that each specification was voted on separately by the jury, as required by Par. 1002 of the Discipline.

There is no proof in the record that the jury did not vote on each specification separately. The fact that the accused was found guilty on only two of the specifications is a circumstance indicating that the jury did vote on each specification separately.

However, in the absence of positive proof that such was not the case the Judicial Council will presume that the jury complied with the law in arriving at its verdict.

3. The appellant claims as a matter of law, that the Trial Court erred by instructing the jury in the absence of accused and his Counsel, and sending it out to arrive at a verdict, and instructing it to follow its own interpretation of the law in the Discipline in arriving at a verdict.

Counsel for the Conference, in reply to this objection, states that the reason the accused and his Counsel were not present when the jury was instructed and sent out to arrive at a verdict was that they absented themselves for an unreasonable time after the appointed time for the Court to convene. This becomes a matter of fact on which the Judicial Council is not permitted to pass. The instruction complained of does not appear to be sufficient on which to declare the action of the Trial Court as constituting an error of law.

4. As to whether the accused was given "sufficient time" to prepare for trial, and whether the Trial Court erred in forcing him to select the jury without aid of counsel is another point raised in the appeal. Had the charges been filed in the interval between sessions of the Annual Conference the accused would have been given 10 days' notice.

The General Conference, however, under the Constitution, paragraph 8 of the 1952 Discipline, has "full legislative power over all matters distinctly connectional." It is not the prerogative of the Judicial Council to question why the General Conference has established one proceeding for trials in the interval between sessions of the Annual Conference, and another proceeding for trials when accusations are preferred against a traveling elder during the session of an Annual Conference. The accused was charged and tried under Paragraph 936, and the succeeeding paragraphs of the Discipline; and Par. 937 specifically provides that "the Annual Conference may order the completion of such trial before the final adjournment of the session."

Apparently the whole matter was conducted substantially in accordance with the law of the Church, and the Judicial Council so finds.

5. The Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction had some discretionary power in the matter of length or arguments, etc., the presentation of briefs, etc., and the record is not sufficient to sustain the charge that as a matter of law the appellate Court erred by refusing appellant's request and attempt to present the second section of the Brief on the "Evidence Does Not Support the Charges."

6. The sixth point of the appeal can be answered categorically in the negative—Par. 1006 of the 1952 Discipline. That paragraph establishes the policy that in the trial of a traveling preacher no layman shall participate as Counsel. By implication at least that includes an assistant counsel.

Decision

Since the record discloses that the whole proceedings in regard to the Charges against the Reverend L. Blake Craft, his trial thereon, and his appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction were conducted substantially in accordance with the established law of the Church, and that no error of law was committed justifying a reversal of the judgments of the trial and appellate Courts, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the judgments of the trial and appellate Courts in this matter be and they are hereby in all things affirmed.

Decision No. 117

In Re: Request of Council of Bishops for a Declaratory Decision on the Question "Whether or Not a Retired Bishop of a Central Conference Is Authorized to Attend Meetings of the Council of Bishops With Expenses Paid."

DIGEST OF DECISION

A retired bishop of a Central Conference is authorized to attend meetings of the Council of Bishops with expenses paid.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a meeting of the Council of Bishops held in Seattle, Washington, April 19-22, 1955, the Council voted to request the Judicial Council to render a declaratory judgment upon the following question:

> "Is a retired bishop of a Central Conference authorized to attend meetings of the Council of Bishops with expenses paid?"

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline states in part as follows:

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council, on petition as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline. . . .
> ". . . (1) The Council of Bishops. . . ."

From the facts indicated above the Judicial Council has jurisdiction in this matter.

Analysis

Paragraph 36, Article III, of the Constitution, states:

> "There shall be a Council of Bishops composed of all the bishops of all the Jurisdictional and Central Conferences. . . ."

Paragraph 555, 1952 Discipline states:

> "A bishop elected by a Central Conference shall have the status, rights, and duties within his territory of a bishop elected by or functioning in a Jurisdictional Conference. A bishop elected by a Central Conference shall have membership in the Council of Bishops and shall have the privilege of full participation with vote in the meetings of the Council whenever the interest of his Central Conference or the interests common to all Central Conferences are involved. Attendance upon the annual meetings of the Council of Bishops by bishops elected by Central Conferences shall be left to the option of the bishops in each Central Conference."

Paragraph 437, referring to a retired bishop, states:

> ". . . He may participate in the Council of Bishops, but without vote. . . ."

From the paragraphs of the 1952 Discipline quoted above, it would seem that a retired Bishop of a Central Conference is a member of the Council of Bishops, has the right to attend the meetings of the Council if he so desires, and may participate in the meetings whenever the interest of his Central Conference, or the interests common to all Central Conferences, are involved, but without vote.

Paragraph 574, 1, provides that:

> "A Central Conference shall participate in the General Episcopal Fund upon payment of its apportionment on the same basis as that fixed for Annual Conferences in Jurisdictional Conferences. . . ."

Paragraph 773 provides that:

> "The treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance shall pay monthly the claim for the official travel of each bishop or missionary bishop, upon presentation of an itemized voucher. . . ."

Since travel to the meetings of the Council of Bishops, which retired Central Conference bishops are authorized to attend, is clearly official travel, they are entitled to payment of travel expense.

A Central Conference bishop who has not been re-elected and later retires and returns to his annual conference, is no longer a bishop, even though he receives an allowance from the General Episcopal Fund for the years during which he served as bishop. He is therefore not a member of the Council of Bishops and not entitled to attend its meetings. (See Decision No. 61 of the Judicial Council.)

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that a retired bishop of a Central Conference is entitled to attend the meetings of the Council of Bishops, with expenses paid, and participate in such meetings whenever the interest of his Central Conference, or the interests common to all Central Conferences, are involved, but without vote.

Decision No. 118

In Re: Request of the Ohio Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision on the Question "Can the Church Treasurer Withhold Pension Fund Assessments and Send Them in Directly to the Pension Office or Must the Ministers Send the Money in Themselves."

DIGEST OF DECISION

Church treasurers cannot withhold the 3% pension fund assessments on salaries of ministers and remit them to the pension board. Such assessments must be sent in by the ministers themselves. If the ministers should agree to such withholding and authorize the Church Treasurer to send same to the Fund in quarterly installments that would constitute compliance with Par. 1646 of the Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the Ohio Annual Conference held at Lakeside, Ohio, June 7-12, 1955, the Reserve Pension Committee Report recommended that the Conference adopt a salary withholding plan for the 3% assessment (Reserve Pension Plan).

By this method of withholding assessments from ministers' salaries by local church treasurers who would send them in directly to the pension office, it was thought to prevent arrearages now so prevalent among ministers of the Conference. A motion was passed by the Conference asking the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision interpreting Paragraph 1646, Section 1 of the 1952 Discipline as to its bearing on the question of local church treasurers withholding such assessments from ministers' salaries and sending them to the pension office.

Jurisdiction

Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline states:

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, the Judicial Council, on petitions as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning, application and effect of such act, legislation or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline. . . ."
> "The following bodies in The Methodist Church are hereby authorized to make such petitions to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision. . . .
> (8) Any Annual Conferences, on matters relating to annual Conferences or the work therein."

The above conditions having been met by the Ohio Annual Conference, the Judicial Council is therefore authorized to take jurisdiction in the matter presented by said Conference.

Analysis

The General Conference has provided the following procedure for contributions of lay employees to the "Lay Employees Pension Fund": Paragraph 1658 (3b) of the 1952 Discipline relating to "Contributions of lay employees" to the Lay Employees Pension Fund states the following: "Each participating employer shall deduct from the compensation of its lay employees at the time such compensation is paid and the accommodations set forth in Sec. 3a are furnished, a sum equivalent to not less than three per cent (3%) of the same amount used in the computation set forth in Sec. 3a . . . which sum shall be forwarded to the Illinois Corporation. . . ." Paragraph 1659 (4) re: lay employees of an effective bishop, directs the bishop to "deduct the required contributions from the compensation of such participating lay employees and forward such amounts concurrently with the required employer's contributions to the Fund. . . ." The General Conference, however, has seen fit to adopt a different plan regarding the collection of contributions from ministers for the "Ministers Reserve Pension Fund."

Paragraph 1646(1) of the 1952 Discipline is clear and explicit in its statement that "an annual contribution, the equivalent of 3% of the average salary of the conference (as defined in paragraph 1618, Sec. 6 of the pension code) shall be paid directly to the Fund by each qualified member thereof in quarterly installments, etc."

In case the individual contributors should agree that such contributions might be withheld by the Church Treasurer and sent in to the Fund quarterly this would be a compliance with Par. 1646(1). In the absence of such agreement it appears that the Annual Conference does not have the power to enforce a withholding of such contributions.

Decision

In view of Paragraph 1646(1) of the 1952 Discipline, in the absence of agreement therefor by the ministers involved, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that church treasurers may not withhold the 3% reserve pension fund contributions from the salaries of ministers. Such contributions must be sent in by the ministers themselves or by their authorized agent.

NOTE: John Taylor Alton did not vote on the decision in this case.

Decision No. 119

In Re: Whether the Proceeds of the Sale of Grace Methodist Church of Portland, Oregon, Should Be Turned Over to the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund, or to the Portland District, of the Oregon Annual Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

When an Annual Conference adopts a standing rule it is bound by such rule unless same is suspended or rescinded and some other action taken. Any action in conflict with the standing rule taken without suspending or rescinding the rule is void. Therefore, the proceeds of the sale of Grace Methodist Church belong to the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund as determined by the Standing Rule of the Oregon Annual Conference.

REQUEST FOR DECLARATORY DECISION

The following request for Declaratory Decision by the Judicial Council has been received from the Oregon Annual Conference of The Methodist Church:

> "RESOLUTION

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Par. 914 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church to hear and determine the matter here submitted.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 1928, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church adopted the following policy relating to the properties of foreign language churches being merged with English-speaking churches.

> "Par. 354. TRANSFER OF PROPERTY OF MERGING CHARGES. When a foreign language church merges with one or more English-speaking charges, thereby abandoning their church and parsonage property, such property may by vote of the Quarterly Conference, a majority of all members of such Quarterly Conference concurring, be, prior to such merger, conveyed to the Trustees of the Annual Conference, within whose geographical territory the property is located, at the time of the merger, in trust for the benefit of the Conference Claimants of such Annual Conference." (Page 601, 1928 General Conference Journal, Methodist Episcopal Church.)

In 1932 the following rule appeared in the Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

> "XV. ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY, SEC. 1. When any property of the German-speaking churches within the bounds of the Oregon Annual Conference becomes abandoned according to the disciplinary requirements, the Trustees of the Conference are instructed to turn the property to the Board of Conference Claimants of the Conference for Administration."

This was a policy established by the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Oregon Annual Conference prior to Union.

In 1940 (after Union) the General Conference adopted the following provision relative to abandoned Church property:

> "Par. 782. With the consent of the Presiding Bishop and a majority of the District Superintendents and the District Board of Church Location and Building within whose jurisdiction the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any Charge or Church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. Upon a Charge or Church being thus discontinued or abandoned it shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct, and if no such lawful Trustees remain or if for any reason said Trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the directions of the Annual Conference. . . ."

In 1940, following the enactment of the above quoted provision by the General Conference, the Oregon Annual Conference amended its standing rule as to the disposition of abandoned Church property to read as follows:

> " '30. ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY, Sec. 1. When the District Superintendent has decided to request the Annual Conference to declare a certain property abandoned, he shall first record the individual trustees of the Annual Conference as the elected trustees of the church property in such a way as to make them the trustees of said property. (Par. 188, 354.)
> " 'Sec. 2. The District Superintendent's motion declaring any of the German property abandoned, shall also carry the reference of the property to the Board of Claimants' Endowment Fund of the Oregon Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund.' "

This was the standing rule of the Oregon Annual Conference on February 22, 1951, when the Grace Methodist Church of Portland, Oregon, was declared abandoned property and was also the rule in 1953 when the property was sold.

On June 14, 1951, without suspending the above quoted standing rule, the Oregon Annual Conference took the following action relative to the proceeds of the sale of the Grace Methodist Church of Portland:

> " 'On motion of T. Malcolm Hammond, the Grace Methodist Church was declared abandoned, the property to be sold and the proceeds to be returned to the Portland District.' "

The proceeds of such sale are still in the hands of the Conference Board of Trustees.

On June 8, 1954, the following actions were taken by and in the Oregon Annual Conference:

> "At the corporate session on June 18, 1954, the following action was taken:
> " 'On motion of Edward Terry, all previous action relative to disposition of the Funds received from the sale of the Grace Methodist Church, a former German Methodist Church, was rescinded.
> " 'On motion of Edward Terry, the $15,000 which remains in the fund was turned over to the Lents Church, Portland.' "

The legality of the action taken at the corporate session of June 18, 1954, was called in question the next morning, June 19, 1954, and the bishop made his ruling, which is recorded as follows:

> " 'Legality of action. Bishop Grant ruled that action of the Conference during the corporate session rescinding all previous action in regard to the sale of the German Church properties was illegal because it did not carry a two-thirds vote, which is necessary with a motion to rescind.' "

Analysis

The Grace Methodist Church formerly known as the First German Church of Portland, Oregon, was one of the churches of the Pacific German Conference that came into the Oregon Annual Conference at the time the Pacific German Annual Conference was merged with the Oregon Annual Conference.

The original actions in this case took place prior to Union, the General Conference of 1928 having authorized the establishment of a rule whereby, upon vote of a majority of all members of the Quarterly Conference, taken by the foreign language Church prior to merger, the property of the Church being abandoned could be conveyed to the TRUSTEES of the Annual Conference "in trust for the benefit of the Conference Claimants of such annual Conference."

It will be noted that this authority to convey such property to the Trustees of the Annual Conference "in trust for the Conference Claimants of such Annual Conference" was predicated upon the vote of a majority of all the members of the Quarterly Conference; and that it did not give the Annual Conference the authority to so transfer the property in the absence of such a vote by the Quarterly Conference of the foreign language church being merged with another church.

Hence the 1932 rule of the Oregon Annual Conference was applicable only to such merging foreign language churches whose Quarterly Conferences, prior to merger, had by a majority vote of their respective membership, authorized the same.

The Grace Methodist Church of Portland, however, did not dissolve until 1951. The rules and regulations made by General Conferences and by Annual Conferences, however, are not like the laws of the Medes and Persians. They are subject to change from time to time, the only limitations being that they do not contravene the constitution, and cannot be made retroactive so as to impair a legal contract. Let us look, therefore, to the provisions of the law as of February 22, 1951.

In 1939, three Churches, including the Methodist Episcopal Church, were united into one church under a new constitution denominated the Plan of Union. Under this Plan the Discipline by which the United Church was to be governed was to be framed by the Uniting Conference, under the following provisions of the Plan of Union:

> "Article IV. The duties and powers of the Uniting Conference subject to the provisions of this Plan of Union shall be:
> "1. To harmonize and combine the rules and regulations as found in the Disciplines of the three churches relating to membership, conferences, the ministry, judicial administration, and temporal economy."

> "Article VII. The legislative power of the Uniting Conference shall be confined to harmonizing and combining provisions now existing in the Disciplines of the three churches, one or more of these."

This was interpreted by the Uniting Conference as giving it power to form the Discipline of the united church by taking anything it found in any one of the three Disciplines on a given subject, or combining and harmonizing provisions taken from two or all three of the Disciplines of the uniting churches, and putting same into the new Discipline. The new Discipline, therefore, was to supersede the Disciplines of the three uniting churches, and to be the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Apparently the Uniting Conference overlooked the question of "Abandoned Church Property," as it did not make any provision as to the disposition of any abandoned church property. The only provision in the 1939 Discipline being Sub. 11 of Par. 228 requiring the District Superintendent "to prepare and deliver to his successor an official list of all abandoned church buildings, parsonages, cemeteries and other property within the bounds of his District, etc."

The 1940 General Conference of the united Church remedied this omission by adopting the following provision:

> "Par. 782. With the consent of the Presiding Bishop and a majority of the District Superintendents and the District Board of Church Location and Building within whose jurisdiction the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any Charge or Church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. Upon a Charge or Church being thus discontinued or abandoned it shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct, and if no such lawful Trustees remain or if for any reason said Trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the Directions of the Annual Conference."

This same provision was carried forward in the 1944 Discipline and in the 1948 Discipline and was, therefore, the law on the subject on February 22, 1951, when the Grace Methodist Church of Portland, Oregon, dissolved. Under this law the properties of Grace Methodist Church, upon abandonment, passed under the control of the Annual Conference.

According to the affidavit furnished setting forth procedure under which Grace Methodist Church dissolved, the Quarterly Conference of Grace Methodist Church recognized this to be the law, and directed "that such action as may be deemed necessary be taken to place the properties in the custody of the Oregon Annual Conference as of June, 1951."

Apparently the Trustees of Grace Methodist Church failed to carry out these instructions. Upon their failure to do so, then, under the law above quoted the property passed into the control of the Annual Conference, to be sold or disposed of in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference. Furthermore, the explanation given to inquiries made during the meeting of the Quarterly Conference of Grace Methodist Church at which the Church dissolved shows that all understood that control of the properties would thereafter be in the Annual Conference, otherwise the petition to the Annual Conference to allocate the proceeds of the sale of such property "for Church Extension purposes within the Portland District" would have been without purpose and without meaning.

Therefore, it is the finding of the Judicial Council that from and after February 22, 1951, the date of the abandonment of the Grace Methodist Church, the control and disposition of the properties of Grace Methodist Church were under the direction of the Oregon Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, subject to its own rules and regulations.

In 1940, the Oregon Annual Conference set up its own rule for the disposition of abandoned church property. It reads as follows:

> " '30. ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY. Sec. 1. When the District Superintendent has decided to request the Annual Conference to declare a certain property abandoned, he shall first record the individual trustees of the Annual Conference as the elected trustees of the church property in such a way as to make them the trustees of said property. (Par. 188, 354.)
> " 'Sec. 2. The District Superintendent's motion declaring any of the German property abandoned, shall also carry the reference of the property to the Board of Claimants' Endowment Fund of the Oregon Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund.' "

This rule, in effect, brought forward the original understanding of 1928 to 1932, relative to the disposition of the property of former German Churches. That Conference rule was still in effect on February 22, 1951, when Grace Methodist Church dissolved. Since it is an action of the Annual Conference under an established policy, and since the Annual Conference is the final authority in the disposition of abandoned church property, it would not appear that such Standing Rule is in anywise in conflict with the law of the Church as set out in the Discipline of the united church.

However, on June 14, 1951, the Oregon Annual Conference took the following actions:

> " 'On motion of T. Malcolm Hammond, the Grace Methodist Church was declared abandoned, the property to be sold and the proceeds to be returned to the Portland District.' "

Here are two conflicting actions by the Annual Conference, one being a standing rule, and the other being the adoption of two motions at variance with the standing rule.

The ultimate question involved in this matter is to decide which action of the Annual Conference controls—the Conference Rule relating to abandoned church properties or the specific actions of the Annual Conference with reference to the abandoned properties of Grace Methodist Church, and the proceeds of the sale thereof.

If the Conference Standing Rule is paramount, then the specific actions relating to the disposition of the abandoned church property and proceeds of the sale of the property of Grace Methodist Church are void, and the June 18, 1954, action of the Oregon Annual Conference rescinding "all previous action relative to disposition of the funds received from the sale of the Grace Methodist Church, a former German Methodist Church" was and is immaterial. However, if the specific action of the Annual Conference allocating the proceeds of the sale of the properties of Grace Methodist Church to church extension purposes in the Portland District takes precedence over the Conference

Standing Rule, then the question as to whether the action rescinding same is valid becomes pertinent.

In the brief submitted in favor of the Conference Standing Rule being paramount to the special actions of the Annual Conference, appears the following statement:

> "At the time of the motion by T. Malcolm Hammond and the motion by Edward Terry, no motion had been made or adopted to suspend the Conference Rules."

This statement is not denied in the brief submitted in support of the special actions of the Annual Conference allocating the proceeds of this property to the Portland District. The Judicial Council assumes therefore that the Conference Rule No. 30 had not been suspended when these special actions were taken.

Under the Constitution, the Annual Conference is the "basic" body in our Church, and has the right to make its own rules and regulations, so long as same do not conflict with the general law of the Church.

The Judicial Council has consistently held, however, that when an Annual Conference establishes a rule it is bound by that rule until that rule has been suspended or abolished or another rule adopted to take its place.

> (Decision 38 of the Judicial Council, in Re: Corporation Meetings, Central Kansas Conference. Decision 75; Re—The election of Trustees for the White Cross Hospital, Columbus, Ohio.)

It has been argued that the adoption by the Annual Conference of the special motion directing the property to the Portland District was, in effect, a suspension of the Standing Rule. This is to some extent persuasive, but to approve such action in a case where the Standing Rule has been ignored, even by oversight, would in effect make the adoption of Standing Rules a practical nullity. The Annual Conference has the right to suspend or change its Standing Rules at any time it so chooses, by whatever vote it has established for its own procedure. But to maintain in its Journal year after year a Standing Rule and then ignore it by special action at variance with the rule without suspending or changing the rule would make the Standing Rule of no effect.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Since Par. 255 of the 1948 Discipline left the final disposition of abandoned church property in the hands of the Annual Conference, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that NEITHER the Oregon Annual Conference Standing Rule No. 30, sub. 2, placing such property in the hands of the Conference Trustees, and referring the property to the Board of Claimants' Endowment Fund of the Oregon Claimants' permanent fund, NOR the special actions of the Oregon Annual Conference referring the property and ordering the cash on hand paid to the Portland District are in conflict with said Par. 255 of the 1948 Discipline. Each such action is an action of the Annual Conference, the ultimate authority in the disposition of the property. The Annual Conference, by proper procedure, had the right to do either.

It is further the decision of the Judicial Council that since said Standing Rule No. 30 of the Oregon Annual Conference was not suspended or rescinded at or before the taking of the special actions of the Oregon Annual Conference directing the reference of money and property of Grace Methodist Church to the Portland District, said Standing Rule No. 30 is paramount, and such special actions of the Oregon Annual Conference in conflict with such Standing Rule No. 30 are void.

The Judicial Council has not been advised as to whether or not the Oregon Annual Conference has any set rules of parliamentary procedure. In the absence of any specific Conference rules for parliamentary procedure, it is presumed that the Bishop presiding over the Annual Conference had the right to follow the parliamentary procedure of some recognized authority such as Roberts Rules of Order.

Under Roberts Rules of Order, paragraph 67, pages 264-269, Standing Rules may be suspended, but, in the absence of the suspension of the Standing Rule no motion that conflicts therewith is in order.

It is in the light of this authority and the admitted facts in this case, that the Judicial Council holds the special acts of the Oregon Annual Conference referring the money and property of the Grace Methodist Church to the Portland District to be void.

Therefore, answering the specific question propounded by the Oregon Annual Conference for Declaratory Decision, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that in the light of the present record of the proceedings of the Oregon Annual Conference, and the law applicable thereto, the abandoned property of Grace Methodist Church of Portland, Oregon (and the proceeds from the sale thereof) is the property of and should be turned over to the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund of the Oregon Annual Conference.

Decision No. 120

In Re: Validity of the Election of Fred B. Noble, Member of the Judicial Council As a Delegate to the 1956 Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church.

DIGEST OF DECISION

Fred B. Noble being automatically retired from membership upon the Judicial Council at the 1956 General Conference, he would be in all respects eligible to serve as a delegate to the 1956 Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, which meets after the 1956 General Conference closes. The time of his election as such a delegate is immaterial, his eligibility to serve as such delegate at the time the Jurisdictional Conference meets being the determining factor as to the validity of his election.

QUESTION SUBMITTED FOR DECLARATORY DECISION

"Roy H. Short July 13, 1955
"Resident Bishop

"To the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church
"Judge M. A. Childers, President
"Dr. J. Ernest Wilkins, Secretary

"Dear Brethren:

"At the recent session of the Florida Conference Mr. Fred B. Noble, who is a member of the Judicial Council, received a large number of votes on the first ballot as a delegate to the General Conference. He immediately stated to the lay delegates that he was a member of the Judicial Council and would not be eligible for election to the General Conference. Later, in the balloting for election of delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference, it was assumed that Mr. Noble could serve as a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference which will be meeting in July, 1956, at which time he will have already retired as a member of the Judicial Council.

"Mr. Noble was, therefore, elected as a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference. Bishop Branscomb was later contacted by the secretary of the General Conference relative to Mr. Noble's eligibility to be so elected.

"In order that such eligibility may be tested, and at the request of Bishop Branscomb, the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction respectfully requests of the Judicial Council a declaratory decision as to whether or not, under Paragraphs 502, 524, and 902 of the Discipline, a member of Judicial Council retiring at a General Conference is eligible for election to the Jurisdictional Conference following his retirement.

"Very truly yours,
"ROY H. SHORT /s/

Jurisdiction

The question submitted for declaratory decision being one "relating to or affecting" the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, "or the work therein," the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine same under subdivison (3) of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Florida Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, at its 1955 session held at Lakeland, Florida, elected Fred B. Noble (now a member of the Judicial Council) as a delegate to the 1956 Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church. The validity of such election having been questioned the Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church certified the question to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision, as set out in the certificate from the Secretary of the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction (July 13, 1955). The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will meet in July, 1956, after the 1956 General Conference has adjourned.

Fred B. Noble is now seventy (70) years of age. (July 29, 1955.)

Analysis

The only paragraph in the 1952 Discipline disqualifying members of the Judicial Council for membership in a Jurisdictional Conference is paragraph 902, which reads as follows:

> "Par. 902. Members of the Council shall be ineligible for membership in the General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference or in any general or jurisdictional board or for administrative service in any connectional office."

Fred B. Noble, being now seventy (70) years of age, will not be a member of the Judicial Council at the time of the 1956 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. Art. 1 of Par. 901 of the 1952 Discipline specifically provides as follows:

> "PROVIDED, however, that a member of the Council whose seventieth birthday precedes the first day of the regular session of a General Conference shall be released at the close of that General Conference from membership or responsibility in the Council REGARDLESS of the date of expiration of his term of office."

It will be noted that Par. 902, making members of the Judicial Council ineligible for membership in the Jurisdictional Conference, does not say that a member of the Judicial Council is ineligible for election as a member of the Jurisdictional Conference while he is still a member of the Judicial Council. The only prohibition is that a member of the Judicial Council cannot at the same time be a member of the Jurisdictional Conference. The term for the 1956 Jurisdictional Conference begins after the 1956 General Conference closes (Par. 14, 1952 Discipline), and after Fred B. Noble has been "released from membership or responsibility in the Council." Any Jurisdictional Conference held prior to the 1956 General Conference would be a called session of the 1952 Jurisdictional Conference, to membership in which Fred B. Noble has not been elected.

Since at the time the 1956 Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction meets ("within the twelve months succeeding the meeting of the General Conference" of 1956) Fred B. Noble will be eligible for membership therein, the time of his election thereto is immaterial, since such election would not be to a position to which he would be ineligible at the time of service therein.

Decision

It is therefore the Decision of the Judicial Council that, since Fred B. Noble will not be a member of the Judicial Council when the 1956 session of the Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church convenes, his election to membership in such Jurisdictional Conference by the 1955 session of the Florida Annual Conference of The Methodist Church is in all respects valid.

NOTE: Fred B. Noble voluntarily refrained from participating in the discussion in connection with this matter and from voting on the decision.

Decision No. 121

In Re: Request of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision Concerning Its Right or Power to Ordain a Woman as Local Deacon.

DIGEST OF DECISION

Since the Philippines Central Conference has failed to take action regarding the ordination of women, the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference has the right to ordain a woman as a Local Deacon.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following action was taken at the session of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference in San Jose, Neuva Ecija, Philippines, February 17-21, 1954.

> "Upon motion of Melanio M. Loresco seconded by Cenon Gacutan it was approved that the ordination of Miss Romana Amson as a Local Deacon be deferred until an opinion of the Judicial Council be received approving the same. The secretary was then ordered to write the President, Judicial Council, for such opinion on Women's Ordination."

The Judicial Council received the following letter from the conference secretary:

> "January 11, 1955
> "Sirs:
> "The Northwest Philippines Annual Conference in its last session voted to defer the ordination of a qualified local preacher as LOCAL DEACON pending receipt of an opinion from the Judicial Council as to whether an ANNUAL CONFERENCE like this Northwest Philippines Annual Conference, has the right or power to ordain a woman as LOCAL DEACON upon expressed approval of its members. In this connection, it is hereby informed that the Philippines Central Conference to which this annual conference belongs, failed to provide rules and regulations for the ordination of a woman as per paragraph 578 of the 1952 Methodist Discipline. However, paragraph 22 of the same discipline and other provisions relative to the above case were fully discussed after which this conference approved the idea of ordaining a woman as LOCAL DEACON. Upon recommendation of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, however, action relative thereto has been held pending until an opinion from that honorable body is received.
> "In view of the foregoing and by authority of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference, I have the honor to request this honorable Judicial Council to please render an opinion relative to this matter of Woman Ordination and to send the same opinion at the earliest possible time through the undersigned to this annual conference at the above address.
> "Respectfully yours,
> "/s/ GREGORIO R. BAILEN
> "GREGORIO R. BAILEN, > Conference Secretary."

Jurisdiction

Under paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline an Annual Conference has the right to request the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision. The action of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference constitutes such a request and the matter is therefore properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Section VII, Article II, of the Constitution (Par. 22 of the 1952 Discipline) declares—"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, etc."

Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline, at the close of a series of paragraphs dealing with local preachers, ordained and unordained, states that "Women are included in the foregoing provisions except in so far as they apply to candidates for the traveling ministry." Certainly, then, a woman may be granted a local preacher's license and, if she meets the qualifications for ordination, may be granted ordination as a local preacher by vote of the Annual Conference.

In the case of Annual Conferences outside the United States of America, however, these rights and powers may be modified by action of a Central Conference under the powers granted to it by the Constitution.

Section V, article IV, of the Constitution (Par. 18 of the 1952 Discipline) states that:

> "The Central Conference shall have the following powers or duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference . . . (5) to make such rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference."

Under the authority of this section of the constitution the General Conference has conferred many other powers and duties upon the Central Conference. Paragraph 578 states:

> "A Central Conference shall have the power to make such changes and adaptations as the peculiar conditions on the fields concerned require regarding the local church, ministry, special advices, worship, and temporal economy within its territory, and shall have power to decide the official status and ordination of women; provided that no action shall be taken which is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The Methodist Church."

Under this authority the Philippines Central Conference could change or modify, for all the annual conferences within its boundaries, the provisions in the Discipline which give an Annual Conference the right and power to grant ordination to a woman as a local preacher.

However, since, as the secretary of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference states, the Philippines Central Conference has taken no action in this regard, it is the judgment of the Judicial Council that the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference may proceed under the provisions of the Constitution and Discipline of the Church which grant an annual conference the right and the power to ordain a woman either as a local deacon or as a local elder providing she meets the disciplinary qualifications for such ordination.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that unless or until the Philippines Central Conference takes some action changing or adapting the disciplinary provisions concerning the ordination of women as local preachers, the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference has the right and the power to ordain a woman as a Local Deacon.
